

Safety and cybersecurity popularised

Course: 00170

Filter: Beginner

Duration: 1 days

Category:: Cyber Security

Price: 660,00 €

About Course

By following a step-by-step approach, this training aims to bring participants to understand the different aspects related to safety and their impact on the company. The various recommendations will enable you to better protect your environment by following the simple but important basic principles of protection as well as the industry's best practices in this area.

What you'll learn

- Understand the aspects and impact of cyber security
- Become familiar with the basic principles of data and access protection
- Understand and apply industry best practice

Targeted audience

- Security managers
- CSO
- CTO
- Network administrators
- Users at risk

Pre-requisites

- None

Curriculum

Module 1: Safety vocabulary

- What do the different terms commonly used in security mean?
- Being able to understand a conversation about cybersecurity

Module 2: How to identify a cyber attack

- What is a cyber attack?
- Understanding the techniques and loopholes used by fraudsters
- How to differentiate between legitimate and fraudulent communications
- Tips to avoid getting caught

Module 3: How to protect yourself against attacks

- Basic best practice
- Educating users
- How to change human behaviour
- Company policies

Module 4: Risk factors

- Identifying entry points
- E-mails, messages, files
- Extent of the risks involved

Module 5: Professional help or in-house actions

- The role of a safety professional
- Why seek professional help?
- What to do without breaking the bank