

Scope and obligations of the law 25

Course: 00177

Filter: Beginner

Duration: 2 days

Category: Microtek Networking

Price: 151,00 €

About Course

This training aims to inform and, above all, equip participants to understand the impact of Bill 25 on the protection of personal data held by companies in Quebec. Bill 25 is similar in many respects to the GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation), also known by its French acronym RGPD (General Data Protection Regulation), the reference text for data protection in protection at European level

What you'll learn

- Provide an overview of the law
- Define the responsibilities of companies
- Develop an appreciation of the elements of digital data protection
- Equip participants to comply with the law

Targeted audience

- Any local or foreign company conducting a?aires in Quebec
- CEO
- CSO
- CTO
- CFO
- Network administrators
- HR and any other person with access to personal information

Pre-requisites

- None

Curriculum

Module 1: Law 25

- Origins and aims
- Principles and Scope

Module 2: The explicit requirements of the law

- In force since 2022
- In force since 2023
- In force since 2024

Module 3: Implicit requirements

- The famous 'Reasonable measures'
- The elements of a strategy

Module 4: Actions to take

- Reminder of actions to take
- How to proceed