

Introduction to Cyber Security - a Starter Guide

Course: 00088

Filter: Beginner

Duration: 20 hours

Category:: Cyber Security

Price: 1500,00 €

About Course

In this Introduction to Cybersecurity training course, you will learn to protect your organization from social engineering attacks and cyber threats through disaster recovery methods that ensure continuity of operations. In this cyber security awareness course, you will learn how to establish security in your organization by assessing your environment, identifying needs and deficits, and enumerating critical elements of security awareness.

What you'll learn

- Achieve the goals of cybersecurity
- Promote user responsibility and data securityExamine malicious insider threatsFortify the organization against outside attacks

Pre-requisites

- No prior experience is required.

Curriculum

Module 1: Identifying threats, vulnerabilities and consequences

-

Module 2: Examining and testing malware - rootkits and backdoors

-

Module 3: Assessing defenses against cyber threats

-

Module 4: Being prepared for social engineering attacks

-

Module 5: Preparing for problems - disaster recovery and continuity of operations

-